

Holmfirth Jive (Class every Wednesday) At Holmfirth Civic Hall

Event - Holmfirth Jive (Class every Wednesday) At Holmfirth Civic Hall

|                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| When        | Wed, 16. September 2026, 19:30 - 22:00                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Description | Learn to dance Modern Jive. Classes every Wednesday at Holmfirth Civic Hall. Large carpark across the road by the Co-op Shop.Doors open at 7.30 pm.Beginners Class starts 7.45 pmIntermediate Class starts 8.45 pmDancing till 10.00pm You are assured of a very friendly welcome, Beginners are always welcome, no need to bring a partner, just turn up and enjoy a great fun night out, meet new people &amp; get fit whilst doing so. Pay on the door £8 Contact Events |

Venue - Holmfirth Civic Hall

|                      |                                      |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------|
| Location      | Holmfirth Civic Hall |
| Street        | Huddersfield Road                    |
| Postcode      | HD9 3AS                              |
| City          | Huddersfield                         |
| Region/County | Yorkshire                            |
| Country       | GB                                   |

Description

Learn to dance Modern Jive. Classes every Wednesday at Holmfirth Civic Hall. Large car park across the road by the Co-op Shop. Doors open at 7.30 pm. Beginners Class starts 7.45 pm
Intermediate Class starts 8.45 pm. Dancing till 10.00pm You are assured of a very friendly welcome. Beginners are always welcome, no need to bring a partner, just turn up and enjoy a great fun night out, meet new people & get fit whilst doing so. Pay at the door £8 (Cash or Card) Contact